

to fall within LSM or USM and so step S10 would accordingly return a positive response and the processor would then move to step S12. At step S12, n is set to n_max and t to t_max, which are the increased values 7 and 36.